JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SENATOR BROWN'S LETTER.

The Dent imbroglio grows in interest. Its latest development is a very remarkable letter, addressed to Judge Dent by A. G. Brown, formerly United States Senator from Mississippi, and colleague in 1861 with Mr. Davis, and afterwards a Senator from his State in the Confederacy. Next to certain developments as to the operation of the Radical programme in Mississippi, the most remarkable thing in this letter is the exactness with which it supplements and corroborates that view of the Southern situation taken some month since in THE WORLD'S special correspondence from that country. According to Mr. Brown, nineteen-twentieths of the white population of Mississippi, which may be taken to comprise all the genuine citizens of the State, are of one way of thinking, and "the negroes will take sides as they are led either way," with the chance in favor of the citizens of Mississippi that "brains and education will tell after awhile on the most stolid of minds, even on the obtuse intellect of the negro." With nineteen-twentieths of the white people a solid unit, and with a powerful leading influence exerted by them over the blacks, Mr. B. declares that, while the lateness of the day ordered by Mr. Grant for the election—30th November—is a source of regret in Mississippi, it is not regretted upon political grounds; that the citizens will carry the day, "no odds when the election is held." The lateness of the date is regretted because, as the cotton picking begins about the first of September and ends about the last of November, just that very period when the labor is most sharply in demand, will be the period of a high political excitement that, with the negro's known impressibility, will greatly lessen the value of his services in the field. The reason of selecting these two months of September and October for the canvass, in such flagrant disregard of the economic wants of Mississippi, is stated to be that Grant feared the election, if ordered before October, would, in case of its going adversely to the Radical ticket, have a bad effect on the party in the October elections of Pennsylvania and Ohio.

With this expose, first, of the strength and unity of the citizens of Mississippi, and second, of the shameful manner in which the two most important industrial months of the year are, for the benefit of Radicalism, assigned over to all the distracting hurly-burly of a heated canvass, Mr. Brown proceeds to touch upon a third matter, which, as it rises in importance above any mere issue of this pending election, is worthy of special note. He says: "To me and many old men like myself it makes very little difference, politically or personally, what course things may take. There is hardly anything in the chapter of accidents that can give us again any active participation in the affairs of government; but we want peace—permanent, lasting peace. We would not, therefore, leave to our sons the inheritance of avenging any wrongs that may be inflicted on us. The old must soon die off and the young ones take their places. I want to leave my son, and so does every other right-thinking man, no wrongs of mine to be set right after I am gone. At most, it cannot be long before these boys now growing up will get possession of the State Government. It belongs to the men of this generation to decide how they shall manage it. That they may avenge grateful insults heaped on their fathers is not without the range of human probabilities. Such things have happened."

There is something in this that ought not to be passed by as the mere raving of an embittered and broken down old man. It is too consonant to the known course of human nature, and too amply verified in that correspondence, generally of such approved accuracy, that THE WORLD has at each phase of the Southern question presented its readers. Coupling this intonation of a deep seated sentiment of injury with the prior declaration in this letter of an extreme degree of unity and strength among the citizens of Mississippi, it is easy to see how true it is that some day ere long the State must come into the hands of its young men, and easy, too, to perceive that, if those young men participate in the sentiment of their fathers, there is trouble ahead. This general reflection is one that again and again the THE WORLD has sought to impress upon the country—that the evil of Congressional reconstruction was less in its present tangible results than in that obdurate and implacable animosity which it was bringing into life. If negroes as Lieutenant-Governors, and Secretaries of State, and legislators and Sheriffs, and State functionaries generally; if high taxes and carpet-bag dominance, and harsh laws, and black militias, were alone the results, those, in an election or two, would disappear before the superiority of the white race; but, when it comes to the training up of a whole generation much more numerous than the generation of Manassas and Gettysburg in the fixed belief of revenge being a sacred filial duty, there is something terrible in this far-reaching result of a rascality that, bad as it is, was only meant to subserve certain party ends by sharp and cruel means.

Senator Brown gives some glimpse into this possibility; and, to those who are anxiously peering out into the general future, this will, no doubt, be the most interesting portion of his letter. As to immediate political matters, we may recapitulate by saying, first, that, as it appears from this letter, the partisan timing of the Mississippi election by Grant must cost the State very heavily in the article of unpicked cotton—unpicked, because the negro will be torn almost bodily asunder in the fierce canvass, throughout the picking season, for his casting vote; second, that the citizens of Mississippi are united and determined, and mean to carry the election, unless the actu l bayonet blocks the game; third, that Ames, the military commandant, is desperately intriguing for one of the United States Senatorships; and, fourth, that the Radical party in Mississippi is contemptible and in death throes.

A MEAT SHOWER.—All our Eastern and Southwestern stories about sea serpents, big land snakes, discoveries of buried treasure, and the like, have been surpassed at Los Angelos, in southern California. At that place, according to report, on the last Sunday in July, there was a shower of blood, meat and hair, the fragments of flesh coming down in strips six or eight inches long, and presenting the appearance of having been freshly torn from living animals. Several people in that region believe the story, though some consider it a Californian method of conveying the not at all extraordinary information that there has been a sudden fall in meat.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,
LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,
AND THE NEW
UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.
Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.
Those who have used them give testimony as follows:
"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.
"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.
"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.
"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.
"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.
"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Selon Robinson.
"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9 and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1869.

WATER! WATER!!

No city, town, or country family, can get along well without a supply of pure, healthy water. It is not only indespensable to health and comfort and convenience, but is very important to the promotion of morality if not an indispensible requisite in the practice of piety; for St. Paul places cleanliness next to Godliness in the order of Christian graces, and it is next to an impossibility to observe the rules of cleanliness without a good supply of water.

In addition to the ordinary uses of water in the domestic economy of families and communities, an abundant supply is of the utmost considerations in towns and cities for the preservation of property from fire.

It is conceded on all hands that Raleigh is fearfully deficient in regard to water supplies,—in many localities for ordinary purposes of daily consumption, and altogether unprovided in case of fire, for the supply of even the engines now in use. There is not, perhaps, within the corporate limits, a supply of water from all sources—wells, public and private—tanks or reservoirs—in any one locality, to supply the two engines of the city one hour, in case of fire. The city pumps, though kept usually in very good repair, are, nevertheless, a source of heavy expense to the city. It is a demonstrable fact, from the accounts on the City Treasurer's books, that the sum annually paid for new pumps and repairing old ones in the city, would pay the interest on some twenty or twenty-five thousand dollars invested in a permanent and well constructed system of Water Works.

In view of the necessities of the case—the great deficiency in the supply of water for public uses, and the inconvenience suffered by private families, the subject of a Joint Stock Company for the purpose of supplying the city with water, has been mooted and the proposition has been most encouragingly received.

Of course no definite plan has been suggested; the general subject having been discussed only in the ordinary way in casual conversations, but all agree as to the feasibility and success of a Water Company for the city; and the impression prevails, so far as we have been able to learn, that stock in such a Company would be a paying investment.

A friend has furnished us with some calculations showing the probable amount of capital necessary for such an enterprise, which we intended to incorporate in this article, but as there are some particulars not embraced in the calculations, and as further information may be elicited by agitating the matter, and thus more light on the subject be gathered, we defer to another time alluding to the financial features of the project. We may mention here, however, that the calculations alluded to, show that the scheme is altogether feasible.

In the meantime we solicit suggestions and information on the subject, that it may be fully elucidated and laid before the public, preparatory to the calling of a public meeting for the purpose of putting the matter in a tangible shape.

We shall have more to say on this subject at early day.

THE CHINESE.

We look upon the present Chinese immigration question as one fraught with the most important consequences to the future good or evil of this country, with a much stronger probability of evil than of good.—Some take a mere labor view of the question, while others look beyond the present and contemplate it in its bearings on the moral and political aspects of the country in the future.

When, in our colonial infancy, the first slave ship landed its cargo of African barbarians on our coast, there is no doubt the same arguments influenced the minds of the whites, that many bring forward now in favor of the Chinese immigration—much to be done and great scarcity of labor. But had our forefathers foreseen the imminent peril to the country which the introduction of the African race eventually produced, it is very probable they would have used every effort to put a stop to it. The introduction of the negroes into this county, because it took them from a savage and barbarous condition and brought them into contact with civilization and Christianity, was an advantage to the negro, but came near being the death and ruin of the white race as a native.

With the lessons so powerfully impressed upon the nation by the results of African immigration, still fresh upon the recollection, and from the evil consequences of which, indeed, we are not yet free, it is strange that we should so soon set about repeating an experiment so hazardous.

Were we to take a more sectional view of the question, regardless of the probable future consequences, we might say let them come. Every human being, civilized or barbarian, who comes to our shores, is entitled alike to the benefits of our naturalization laws, and every naturalized citizen is possessed of equality of rights and privileges before the law. The Southern land owners might bring millions of Chinese, over whom they might exercise controlling influence and thus make a large acquisition o political power.

We go upon the assumption that the bulk of this immigration would be to the thinly settled regions, which lie mostly in the South and Southwest—the regions of rice and cotton where Chinese labor would pay best. But we believe it would eventually result in harm, nay, in ruin to the South and to the whole country, and therefore we deprecate the movement for the wholesale introduction of this class of population among us.

CHAPEL HILL, Aug. 25.

MR. TURNER:—Public attention having been fixed of late upon this place with a somewhat painful degree of attention, I take it for granted your readers will like to know with what prospects the second session of the new regime at the University has opened.

I learn from one of the boys in attendance that eighteen, all told, attended "prayers" yesterday evening. Of these nine are from abroad. The others from this vicinity. Of them all, five may be considered as "students," that is, may come under that head as being in any degree fit to enter a College. The rest are "preps" of a very limited amount of preparation indeed. The majority are poor boys who avail themselves of the "Free School," as they call it, and are not above old field school acquirements. One of them applied to a lady in this place to give him an elementary book on Algebra, alleging that he was not able to buy it himself. All of them are "charity students."

From these facts we may gather that even if the College authorities mean to change the University into a preparatory Free School, and offer such advantages as the present corps of teachers affords to all residents of the State "free gratis," even with this plan, their success in attracting students is not encouraging.

Respectfully,

J. W.

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 20, 1869.

Editor Sentinel:

DEAR SIR:—How is our old friend, Gov. Holden, coming on? Whom has he pardoned lately? To show how reckless he has become in the exercise of the pardoning power I will give you a case: About the close of the war, Murphy Owen went to a man's house in Montgomery county by the name of Simons, I believe, and demanded some bacon. Simons cut him off a piece; he was not satisfied; demanded more, which was given him. Still being dissatisfied with the quantity received, he went to the smoke house and took more, and on being remonstrated with by Simons, deliberately shot him. He fled from Montgomery and came up into this county and Virginia, until some time in February last when he was arrested and confined in our jail, until April last; he was then carried back to Montgomery county and put upon his trial and convicted of murder in the first degree, the case being so clear against him that the jury were out but a very short time; and in less than ten days thereafter he was pardoned by Governor Holden and turned loose, and has, for most of the time, since been keeping a mill in Wilkes county.

Another capias has been sent to the Sheriff, from Montgomery county for murder against him and he is now confined in the jail of this county, and will be carried back to Montgomery, to next Superior Court to be tried. I understand there are one or two more cases against him for murder, down in Montgomery or Moore county. I can see no good reason for the Governor's course in this matter, unless it is that he belongs to the Union league. If he intends turning loose these murderers, as fast as they are convicted, why not do it before trial, as it would save both trouble and expence. The people up here are beginning to inquire among themselves, how long, oh, how long, are we to be cursed with such a miserable set of rulers, as we are now cursed with? I am candidly of the opinion that in this section, they will be turned out of power whenever an oportunity is given. We elected seventeen of the twenty-five Justices of the Peace in this county, and would have done better than that if it had not been for the number of Conservative candidates running.

I am yours, &c.,

EX-CHIEF DETECTIVE WOOD ON THE TURNER CASE.

Colonel W. P. Wood, who was recently dismissed from his position as Chief of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department, has published in pamphlet form several letters addressed to Secretary Boutwell and Solicitor Banfield. From these we make the following extract:

THE CASE OF TURNER THE NEGRO POSTMASTER.

"I believe you are aware that I have written a communication, (July 28, 1869,) to Mr. Boutwell, which has been published in pamphlet form, in which allusion is made to the case of Turner, the Georgia Postmaster. It might be inferred from said communication that I desired to convey the idea that Turner is innocent, in connection with said notes. Such is not the fact, as Turner was a resident of Washington, and for some time previous to his appointment was a constant visitor at the house of Schureman, and in my opinion Turner obtained from Schureman the stolen money alluded to, which bore the signatures forged by the messenger Schureman, and Turner received the money, knowing the character thereof, with the intention to put it upon the public.

"The tenor of Turner's correspondence with Rev. S. B. Jones (another American preacher of African descent), a copy of which I send you (which is unfit for publication), in connection with the other surroundings of the man Turner, warrants me in asserting that a more unfit person for the appointment of postmaster at Macon, Ga., could not have been selected. I believe the operative of the Division who made the arrest did not proceed in the case as he would have done had he possessed the information that was on file in the Division. This should have been promptly furnished him by your Chief of Division, instead of permitting Mr. Neil to blunder in supposing that the money was either counterfeit or that it had been forged by this man Turner, the American preacher-postmaster of African descent. By these remarks I am not to be understood as one who believes there are no honest, faithful and reliable Americans of African descent; but I allude to this specific case to show the political mismanagement of the powers that be, in the appointment of Turner as postmaster at Macon Ga.,—an outrage to an intelligent people, who, misguided by politicians and accursed with the pollution of slavery, were led into the horrors and devastations of a civil war. To these—our people, our brethren—we should offer, on the alter of conciliation, every fair and honorable concession calculated to draw them to us, with a guarantee that their reasonable requirements for self-government, in conformity with the Constitution of our country, shall be fully awarded to them, instead of putting such unworthy and objectionable characters as Turner, in responsible positions in their community, thus outrageously insulting a people by forcing upon them theoretical teachings of Massachusetts politicians, when the masses of the citizens of Massachusetts take especial good care that Boutwell and others of his kind are not allowed to place the negro in office in Massachusetts. But to return to my subject. As I before stated the money was stolen from the Treasury Department by Schureman, and the signatures of the bank officers forged thereto by him; and I am satisfied, from Turner's surroundings in Washington, that the money was obtained by him with criminal intent, he knowing the same to have been stolen and the signatures to have been forged by his friend Schureman. I cut from a Republican paper published at Macon, Ga., the following paragraph:

"Captain C. C. Neil, the wide awake Treasury Agent, who has done more service for the Government than any officer that ever came to Macon, has been relieved from duty because he tried to bring Turner to justice. The powers that be, it seems, wish to shield crime, and therefore have no use for an honest and active officer."

"Thus it appears that Mr. Neil was dismissed. The arrest was an important one, and had your subordinates or yourself possessed sufficient intelligence to comprehend the subject, and have given Mr. Neil the support necessary to enable a successful and proper prosecution of the case, the result would have been beneficial to the government. This you failed to do and Mr. Neil is dismissed for daring to institute proceedings against the negro Postmaster."

ARREST OF A PROMINENT RADICAL CARPET-BAGGER FOR MURDER.

The arrest of this man Collins, on the charge of murdering Dr. Thomas Haughey, in Courtland, on the 2nd of August, has created quite a stir among his Radical associates and companions, a number of whom are at present in our city, in attendance as members of the Board of Regents of the University of Alabama, of which body this assassin Collins is also a member. They first endeavored to prevent his arrest by asserting that he was privileged from arrest by virtue of being a member of this Board of Regents; alleging that this was a legislative body, and that he could not be arrested while attending its deliberations.—Deputy Sheriff Scott refused to listen to such a pretence, and placed Collins in jail for safe keeping until yesterday morning, when he could be started for Lawrence county, the place where the killing took place. During Friday night great efforts were made by Collins' friends to get him out on habeas corpus, in order to prevent his being carried off the next morning. But their efforts were unsuccessful, and, when early yesterday morning the prisoner was roused up to go to the train, he complained of being too sick to travel. A physician was called in and pronounced him able to travel. Collins then positively refused to go. In order to gain time, or for some other object, he literally, so we are informed, tore off his clothes, leaving himself almost naked. A jail suit was then put on him, and he attempted to tear this off also. He was then manacled and forced to go to the train. It is difficult to conceive why this man should have so far forgotten himself as to have offered this resistance to the officers of the law. Being a carpet-bagger and a Radical, he must have imagined himself above the law. The truth is, it was all intended for effect. His Radical friends have tried to produce the impression that if he goes to North Alabama he will be mobbed. They have telegraphed to Chattanooga for a guard of United States soldiers to escort him through North Alabama, pretending that there is danger of his losing his life by a mob. What low mean trickery these Radicals resort to! This carpet-bag Radical politician, who has been allowed to go over the whole of North Alabama slandering and abusing the good people of that country, and who is the slayer of one man supposed to be a member of the Ku-Klux-Klan—is now, forsooth, at this late day, in danger of losing his life at the hands of that people, and that too, while in the hands of the lawful officers of the State of Alabama, and for the offence of killing Dr. Thomas Haughey, an enemy of the people of North Alabama, and of the so-called Ku Klux organization, and a Radical of the deepest dye!

PRUSSIA AND AUSTRIA.

Interesting Document of the King of Prussia and the Emperor of Austria.

The Gazette of Saxony, appearing at Leipsic, publishes two letters which, if authentic, throw a new light on the policy of the Prussian government during the few weeks which proceeded the campaign of Sadowa. The first, from King William, addressed to the Emperor of Austria, and dated the 1st of June, 1866, is as follows:

"We are at this moment both armed and ready to enter the field. The world believes that we shall fight each other. Let us show that German sovereigns know no hatred to each other, and that they desire only the welfare of the country. Let us unite our forces and march together across the Rhine against "the hereditary enemy of Germany." By that means we shall arrive at such a reorganization of the nation as shall satisfy the universal desires of the people! Your majesty will then unite under his sceptre the States of the South, while I shall become the master of Northern Germany and of the French Rhenish provinces of German origin, situated on the other side of the Rhine (Alsace and Lorraine.) If we attain that object the future of Europe will be in our hands.

The answer of the Emperor of Austria was thus worded:

Your Majesty proposes to me to unite our forces now on a war footing, against France, and at the same time you appeal to my honor as a German prince and show me in perspective the possibility of a union of the German Southern States under Austria. As a German prince I must reply that my ideas and my feelings forbid me to deprive the confederate allies of Austria, the chiefs of German nations, of their sovereign rights.

The second letter was conveyed to Berlin by General Baron de Gablenz. "We shall," adds the Gazette of Saxony, "no doubt receive a denial from Berlin, if facts so positively stated can be contradicted."

SICKLES IN SPAIN.

The Madrid Papers Call Him "the Improvised Hero of the Potomac"—Serrano Puts Him in a Basket-Carriage.

General Sickles, one of the improvised heroes of the Potomac, is a man of handsome features and martial bearing, which the loss of his right leg in battle seems to enhance. The staff of the American Legation consists of six gentlemen, four of whom are military—a remark I make for those who vaunt that militarism has not infiltrated itself into American institutions. One detail I must mention relative to an innovation of courtly etiquette in favor of the General.—It is customary that, when ambassadors are presented to Spanish monarchs in the royal seats of Aranjuez or La Granja, the fountains of those remarkable gardens be made to play to the sound of military music and with a stateliness of ceremony which is an Oriental characteristic of Spain. The Regent, with his well known modesty, has always declined the little princely privileges to which his high rank entitled him. For instance, no person other than of the royal blood is entitled to the privilege of riding on horseback or in a carriage in the Royal Garden, yet the Regent, although refusing to avail himself of this privilege, observing that the American Minister's honorable misfortune (loss of his limb in battle) deprived him of the pleasure of witnessing the fountains playing, kindly placed a small basket carriage and team of ponies at his disposal. Thus the representative of the Great Republic is the first person not of royal blood who has driven in a carriage in the Royal Gardens of La Granja.

[Pall Mall Gazette.]

PRESENTS, PERSONAL AND OFFICIAL.

Letters and newspapers from Victoria help to explain the general disgust of all classes in that part of the world at the item of £3,500 charged in the English estimates for the Duke of Edinburgh's presents. In themselves the articles, so far as they have been publicly acknowledged, appear to have been of a very paltry kind.—Their only value in the eyes of the recipients was that they came from the Queen's son as a personal gift, and this value is lost when it is known that were paid for by the British taxpayer. Moreover, when all the presents to officials and other public persons are reckoned up, only a fraction of the £3,500 is accounted for, and a member of the Legislative Assembly has given notice of a motion for an inquiry, in order to discover who received the bulk of the gifts. In short, the view of the Victorians is this—if the presents were to be paid for by the mother country they should have been bestowed openly, and on public grounds alone, and should morever have been handsome, and worth having. If they were merely personal gifts to intimate private acquaintances, then the Duke should have paid for them himself, especially as he accepted a large quantity of costly articles in return. Meanwhile, the Indian Government is perplexed to decide what rule shall be laid down as to the Duke's presents in India. The Queen, it is said, forbids him either to give or accept anything; but this will seem very strange to the native Princes, who cannot dissociate friendship and respect from offerings.

"COTTON STILL KING."—If any one is still disinclined to confess the truth that "cotton is king," and a great king, too, his doubts ought to be removed by the startling statement of the Manchester Cotton Supply Association, which is forced to acknowledge that "when the great cotton crop of 1866 was made in India, over one million three hundred thousand souls perished from starvation, produced from putting lands in cotton which should have been appropriated to breadstuffs." So also in Egypt, it is admitted, in 1865, "when a large attempt at cotton growing was made, some 350,000 of the population perished from actual starvation." The product of American cotton last year was 2,000,000 bales. This year the amount will be 3,500,000, and next it ought to be 4,000,000 as it is discovered that white men and Chinese can grow cotton as well as colored people. As India, nor Egypt, nor Africa, nor South America can meet the needed supply of cotton, it is satisfactory to know that the United States can. Millions have been expended in exploring other fields, only to show the greater value of American cotton, which is now more of a king than before the war. What, indeed, without it could the United States do in the needed work of reducing to a feeble extent the amount of our debt in Europe?—Balt. Sun.

Three gentlemen of high financial position thought, before they visited Saratoga, it would be prudent to telegraph for rooms. "All right," responded Leland; "you shall have the best in the house." On reaching the Union, Leland found himself embarrassed, and was obliged to put them up with the "garret-angels," under the roof, and to sleep them two in a bed and one on a "shake-down." Leland was up to the emergency; if he could not provide them fine apartments, he could give them a first-rate notice in the Saratoga Post, which he did by announcing as follows: "Distinguished arrivals. Messrs. ———, and are occupying cottages at the Union Hall."

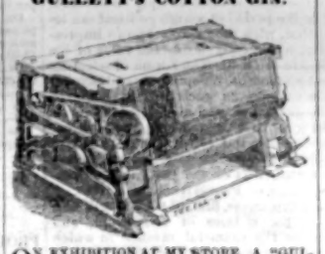
GULLETT'S COTTON GIN.



ON EXHIBITION AT MY STORE, A "GULLETT'S STEEL BRUSH GIN."
The Gin is of a very superior style of workmanship, gins more Cotton in a given time than any Gin of the same number of saws; picks the seed cleaner; leaves no motes or nap; does not waste the lint by throwing it over the walls of the room where it is being ginned; does not cut the lint, but brings it out in beautiful bats.
Planters desiring Gins would do well to buy one of Gullett's, as each one is guaranteed, and if it does not have the advantages, over other Gins, named in this advertisement, after fair trial, it will be no sale.
The "Gullett Gin" has been awarded the Premium at the several STATE FAIRS of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.
I am Agent for its sale and would be pleased to fill orders.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.
Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.
It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.
See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.—We are indebted to Peytons & Co., proprietors, for a card of invitation to a Grand Fancy Dress and Masked Ball, to be given at this popular watering place on Tuesday next, 31st inst., in honor of the Press.

RATHER LATE.—Somebody has requested the Standard to publish a list of Bishop Atkinson's appointments for the Summer visitations, 1869, and the request was complied with yesterday morning. As all the appointments but two have been filled and are past, and those off the line of Railroad, we fear the publication is 'most too late to prove of any advantage to the Bishop or the Congregations.

CAUTION AGAIN.—The law requires all unregistered deeds, conveyances, &c., to be registered by the 1st of October, or they lose their legal force. We therefore admonish every one having such legal documents to have them registered at once, or they will lose the title to the property they cover.

The law also requires all guardians of minors' estates to make report to the Judge of Probate annually, and to renew their bonds once in three years. Those holding guardianships would do well to attend to making the required report, and thus save themselves and the Judge of Probate trouble, and themselves expense.

Rev. Charles Phillips, D. D., Professor of Mathematics in Davidson College, is in the city, stopping with his brother, S. F. Phillips, Esq.

NICE GRAPES.—We are indebted to Mr. F. G. Foster, of Eagle Rock, in this county, for a sample of some very nice grapes.—They are called the Diana, and said to be a seedling of the Catawba species. The bunches are large and full and are said to ripen closer than most species raised in this section.

The good people of the Weldon section of the Roanoke, are taking steps for an Agricultural Fair. May the effort prove successful.

Benjamin O. Person, a worthy citizen of the New Hope neighborhood, Halifax county, died on Monday last, leaving a wife and two children.

The Weldon news is mistaken in regard to what we said about the crops; we said, from Goldsboro to Enfield, and nearly the entire line of the R. & G. Road, the crops were injured past help. We suppose Mush Island near Weldon, to be good for at least 100,000 bushels corn this Fall.

Somebody bursted open a back window of the Store of Messrs. E. M. Holt & Co., in Charlotte, on Tuesday morning last, but got frightened and ran off without stealing anything.

Ladies suffering from any disease peculiar to their sex, can be restored to health by using DR. LAWRENCE'S "WOMAN'S FRIEND." It purifies the secretions, and restores the system to a healthy condition.

The Macon House at Morehead City is said to be doing a fine business this season. The Journal thinks Smithville the best Summer resort on the coast, and suggests the erection of a good hotel there to accommodate Summer visitors.

Circulars have been recently received by different parties in this State, offering to send them $200 counterfeit money for $20 greenbacks. These circulars have been received in Charlotte and Newbern, and perhaps elsewhere.

MODEL FARM.—The well known Hardware Merchants, Messrs. Hart & Lewis, of Newbern, have a model farm near that City, and it has been visited and inspected recently by the editor of the Journal of Commerce. The editor was perfectly delighted with his trip and gives a glowing description of the various crops on the farm. It will be remembered that these are the gentlemen with whom our respected townsman, Mr. J. Brown, is connected in the hardware business at 44, Fayetteville Street in this City.

The editor of the Hillsboro Recorder is off ruralizing, and will be absent from his post a whole month.

BATTLEBORO', N. C., Aug. 25, 1869.

Editor Sentinel:—

DEAR SIR: One of the most aggravated cases of murder that ever darkened civilization was perpetrated by several (six or more) of the negroes who were so unfortunate as to get elected in the late township election, at Whitaker's Station, on the W. & W. R. R., this morning. It seems that the murdered man (Mr. George Griffin) had unfortunately had a difficulty with one Stradford, a negro schoolmaster, who gave him every reason in the world to have the difficulty aforesaid.

After the intervention of a few days, while Mr. G. was in the back room of the store in which he was staying, the negroes came in and showed him a warrant, said warrant (Mr. G.) read (as well as the illegibility would allow) and then said that it was illegal, whereupon the constable (negro) took his (Mr. G's) pistol from the mantel piece and fired three successive loads, two of the balls taking effect and caused, as it were, almost instant death: The negroes then very coolly walked off, but have since been arrested, and will be lodged in jail to await, whatever punishment the "boil" Judges may inflict.

HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS.—The Picayune has information that in a very recent letter Mr. Davis spoke of his health as by no means so precarious as has been lately represented.

In addition to the foregoing, a copy of the Glasgow News, of July 29th, contains a report of the Highland Agricultural Society Show, in which it is mentioned that "special interest was excited among the spectators by the presence of Mr. Jefferson Davis, the President of the late Southern Confederacy, who drove about the grounds with the Marquis of Tweeddale."

The negro horse-thieves recently captured in Nelson county, Va., have confessed that they were regularly employed agents of a livery stable in Richmond, whose names they refused to give, who paid them $50 for each horse they stole and delivered to him.

A GOOD DEFINITION.—The Eutaw (Ala.) Whig gives the following definition of a Radical:

"Tell us, Mr. Squibs, the difference between a white man and a white Radical." "The difference," said he, without a moment's hesitation, "is precisely this—in a white man, the white goes through and through; but in a white Radical the white goes no deeper than the skin." We smiled. "Define a Radical, Mr. Squibs, if you please," said we. "A Radical," he replied promptly, "is a creature among us afflicted with 'nigger' on the brain, to put dimes in his pocket and himself into an office." We laughed. "Why," we again asked, "is he called Radical?" "Radical," he replied quickly, "is an English derivative from the Latin word radix, a root, and has a similar meaning—it signifies a thing that is of more use under the ground than above it."

An old lady in Iowa, complimented on the beauty and preservation of her teeth, ascribed it to having "bitten the snake."—She explained that in childhood her father held a rattlesnake by the head and tail and each of his children bit along the whole backbone, just indenting the skin, as a preventive of toothache and decay, and the old lady believes to the present in the efficacy of such an operation.

Eighteen Lenoir County Men in Craven County Jail—A Big Haul of Desperadoes—Two Men turn State's Evidence.

It was rumored about town Monday that Capt. Mowers, of this city had ferreted out a nest of assassins and murderers in Lenoir County, but the report was so vague that only a few knowing ones had any idea of the truth of the statement or the extent of the information which had been obtained.

A telegram received yesterday stated the fact that eighteen prisoners would arrive on the freight passenger train from Kinston, and when the train arrived it brought Detective Mowers, of this city, Sheriff Hunter, of Kinston, and several others who assisted Capt. Mowers in the capture of the desperadoes.

Since the first of last April, Capt. Mowers has been acting as a detective and ferreting out the perpetrators of the crimes that have constantly been committed in and near Lenior County, and while some have thought that his labors were ineffectual still he has persevered. So close did he follow up the criminals that two have turned State's evidence to evade the hand of justice and there are several more who are anxious to do the same thing. Acting on the information he had at his command he hired what assistants he needed, and Monday night when he commenced his operations not a citizen of Lenoir County except those engaged knew that there was an officer in the vicinity, and before day light yesterday eighteen prisoners were awaiting the train that was to bring them to this city. Their names are as follows:

James Wiggins, Thos. Waters, sen., Wm. Coker, Marion Sutton, Nathan Sutton, Alex. Sutton, Richard Sutton, James Daily, W. B. Nelson, J. L. Parker, Wm. Wiggins, Wm. Pool, Alex. Thomas, J. T. Sogg, R. F. Hill, Egbert Hill, Everitt Hill and Benj Joner.

Another man named Redding Hines, fired into the band that went to arrest him leaped from a widow's capol.

It is supposed that the jail breakers and murderers of prisoners in Lenoir have at last been captured, and if so, every law-loving citizen will wish to see them convicted and summarily punished.

Too much credit cannot be given to Capt. Mowers for his persistent and untiring effort to bring the criminals to justice, and if the men who are now in custody are proven to be the guilty parties, he has done the country and the State great and lasting service.—Newbern Jour. Com. 25th.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pale peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

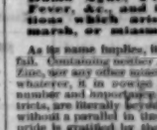
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is its most exact specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unbidden tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its odious forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not exhibited by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, the Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is no efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts contained with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no case injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

THAT HORRIBLE CHICAGO.

HEARTRENDING EXPERIENCE OF A LAWYER —HOW THEY WARRY IN THE GARDEN CITY OF THE WEST.

N. Y. Correspondence Mobile Register.

I think I remarked in my last letter that I once met a Chicago lawyer who warmly advocated marriage, and who explained his reason to me for so doing. For such a man to do such a thing was, to say the least, surprising. I listened with breathless interest while he gave me a brief history of his experience during the first ten years of his residence in that celebrated city.

Said he: "I first came to Chicago fifteen years ago. Then I was young and innocent, which it is hardly necessary for me to say that I am not at present. I had a friend living here whom I had known while he resided in New York, and conducted himself like a civilized man in a civilized community. As he had written to me to visit himself and his wife when I came to Chicago, I remembered the invitation when I did visit that city, and immediately on my arrival proceeded to his house. He was not at home just at the moment, and so I asked to see his wife, whom I had known only a year before in New York. In answer to my enquiry for Mrs. De Vorse, a pretty, black-eyed girl came into the drawing-room and received me quite warmly.

"Well, we chatted very pleasantly together until my friend came in, and really felt myself beginning to experience a very affectionate impulse toward her, supposing, of course, that she was his niece, or cousin, or ward, or something of that sort. But in the course of the evening I asked him whether his wife was at home, and if so, when he proposed to let me see her.

"To my astonishment, he replied, 'This lady is Mrs. De Vorse! I thought you were already aware of the fact."

"Of course I blushed and felt horribly uncomfortable, and said that I was not aware that he had lost poor Emily.

"Oh, said he, 'Emily is very well, and has married a partner of mine. We were divorced, you know, about six months ago, and I married my present wife only last week."

"Well! I didn't feel quite so affectionate toward her after that, for I had been warmly attached to Emily; but we said no more about the matter, and I went away avowing never to get myself into such a scrape again by asking after anybody's wife. I did not see my friend's new wife for a month afterward, until I one day met her in the house of a mutual acquaintance, and in the course of conversation said to her: 'By the way, might I ask you to say to your husband that I want him to come to my office some day next week?"

"'I don't think you know my husband,' she replied smilingly.

"'What do you mean?' said I, getting rather nervous.

"'Why my new husband is named Smith,' she answered. 'I was separated from Mr. De Vorse yesterday morning, and married Mr. Smith last night.'

"I left that house pretty rapidly, and registered a second vow to the effect that I would never, to my dying day, ask a Chicago lady about her husband again. The two mistakes I had already made, as to Chicago wives and husbands, made me decidedly shy of them. But the very next day I went to De Vorse's store, (corn, pork, and provision,) and found him engaged in conversation with a terribly angular female, who looked like a compound of a New England old maid, a Western woman's rights lecturer, and an Arkansas squatter's wife.

"Of course I pitied my friend, and, when the terrible female had gone, I remarked, 'I congratulate you on your escape; that horrible female would have exhausted any man's patience in ten minutes' conversation.' What was my horror when I replied: 'I beg you to speak more respectfully of that lady; she is at present my wife—a fact of which you are of course, unaware, as we were married very privately last night.

"I never said a word, but fled abruptly from his presence. Once more I swore—and I went before a notary, who had the biggest kind of a Bible, so as to make the oath more binding—that never, never would I speak disparagingly of any Chicago woman to any man. After that I felt better, and for two weeks avoided making any more mistakes.

"At the end of that time, however, I met the new and angular Mrs. De Vorse, to whom I had in the meantime been introduced, having the liveliest kind of quarrel, with a prize fighting looking fellow, who was apparently on the point of knocking her down. Of course I flew to her rescue, and demanded to know of the fellow what he meant; also, if he was aware who that lady was, and who her husband was? To which he briefly, sententiously, but as it struck me irrelevantly remarked, 'Hell!'

"I paid no further attention to him, but turning to Mrs. De Vorse, said: 'Madam, permit me to protect you from that ruffian's insolence.

"Instead of thanking me, she actually slapped my face, and said, "I'll teach you to interfere between man and wife. That's my husband, and we have been married three days. Its a a pretty hard thing if a wife can't stop in the street to speak to her husband without having some idiot come and make a muss about it."

"Now," continued the lawyer, "this is not only a true story, but its a fair example of the continued trouble that a man gets into who lives in Chicago and doesn't know how to hold his tongue. You now understand why I hate the Chicago customs, and why I go in for indissoluble marriages. I never made a mistake in asking a man about his wife the whole time I lived in New York, but here I have got into more awkward places and had fights more than I can count, just because no man or woman stays married more than a month at furthest."

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars, comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents best already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER,
June2-tf Secretary.
